

BELMONT CONSOLE

Like other offerings in the Belmont Collection, this luxury console table is made of hardwood and features a unique matte finish that's exquisite to the touch. This simple yet sophisticated table can work in a multitude of designs and spaces. Additionally, the hand-carved profile details give it a distinctive look that can't be found in mass-produced luxury furniture options. As a matter of fact, each piece is finished by hand by artisans and is unique.
